

HILLIARD

THATCHED SPHERE PENDANT

DESIGN:

The Thatched Sphere reimagines Hilliard Lamps iconic glass-tile language in a modern spherical form. Hundreds of luminous glass tiles wrap the fixture, while hand-finished bronze details at the top and bottom give it structure, warmth, and a distinctly sculptural presence.

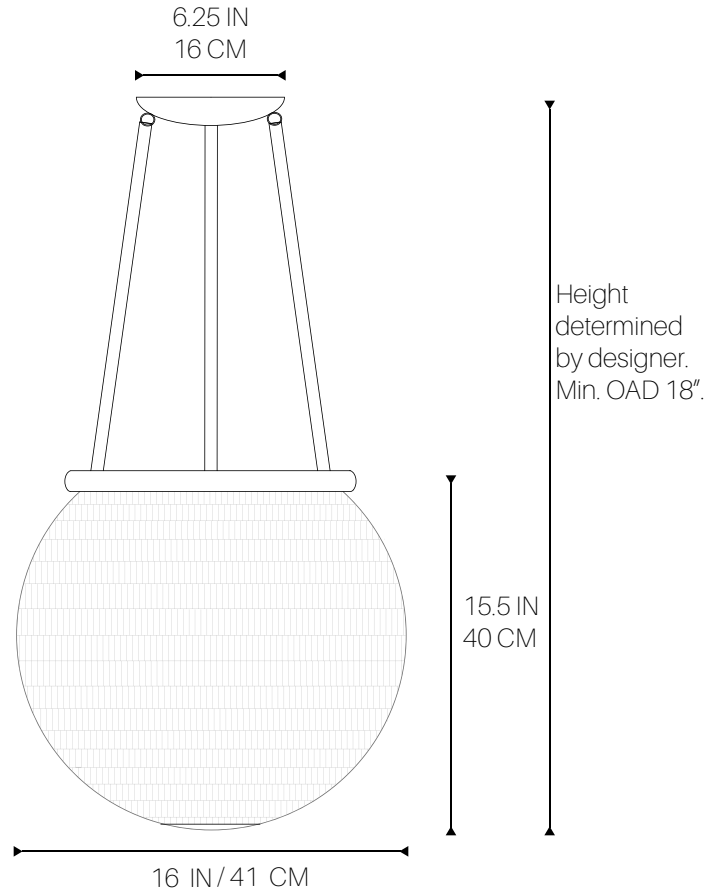

FINISH SHOWN:

Hammered Antique Bronze & Ivory Glass Tiles

HILLIARD

THATCHED SPHERE PENDANT

|                         |                                                                                                                                                                  |
|-------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| DIMENSIONS:             | 16 D x 15.5 H IN(41 D x 40 H CM)Height determined by designer.Over 48" overall height includesadditional charges.                            |
| WEIGHT:                 | Approx 20 LBS (9 kg)                                                                                                                                             |
| VOLTAGE:                | 120v standard / 240 availableUL DAMP LISTED/ CE AVAILABLE                                                                                                |
| J-BOX REQUIREMENT:      | Standard                                                                                                                                                         |
| LAMPINGPER PENDANT: | (1) G8 5.0 W                                                                                                                                                     |
| MATERIALS               | Hammered Antique BronzeIvory Glass TilesAdditional finishes are availableEach fixture is hand crafted, signed,and numbered in Arcata, CA |

HILLIARD

---

